News Coverage and Privacy

- Baldwin Park News may edit stories upon request but does not guarantee story deletion.
- Our reporting on incidents or victims is governed by the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552), which grants the right to access federal agency records or information, except where disclosure is prohibited.
- We collect limited personal information, including names, emails, and phone numbers, solely for newsletters, missing animal alerts, and community assistance purposes.
- Requests for pictures/videos from Baldwin Park News do not guarantee immediate posting. We prioritize pending stories, which might delay the publication of the provided content.
- If you send a private message containing a picture/video, we will always inquire if you prefer to remain anonymous before sharing the content.
- We reserve the right to refrain from responding to messages received on our Social Media Platforms.
- When Baldwin Park News publishes a story or shares an image/video, it will be disseminated across all our social media platforms, our Baldwin Park News website, and newsletters.
- Baldwin Park News will only share information if legally required by authorities.

Social Media Terms and Conditions

- We encourage interaction and appreciate your questions, comments, and information. Our dedicated Baldwin Park News Team aims to respond to as many queries as possible.
- If you submit photos, videos, comments, or any other content to our social media sites, please note that we review all submissions to ensure accuracy and appropriateness before release. Submitting content does not guarantee its publication by Baldwin Park News.
- As our content is public and visible to people of all ages, we expect all participants to demonstrate respect and courtesy.
- Participants must refrain from engaging in any activity that violates the law.
- We reserve the right to remove comments from our social media posts and website at any time, without prior notice.
- If we request a picture or video publicly and you provide it, we may feature your name or social media handle (Facebook, Instagram, or Formally Twitter (X)) when using the content.
- If you send a private message containing a picture or video, and we request permission to use it, we will always inquire if you prefer to remain anonymous.
- Baldwin Park News and Baldwin Park News Online are maintained and operated by our dedicated Baldwin Park News Team.
- We reserve the right to deny access and ban any individual from our social media sites and newsletters for violations of these Social Media Terms and Conditions, without prior notice.
- Individuals who have been banned have the right to appeal the decision. Please submit written appeals to our team at newsdesk@baldwinparknews.com, stating the reason for reconsideration. Our team will respond as promptly as possible.
- This social media policy may be revised at any time. Please check back periodically for updates.
